ABOUT US :

We are a dedicated team passionate about uplifting our library and community through our volunteer initiatives.

We generate funds through membership dues, donations, and various fundraising events. We are eager to hear your fresh ideas for fundraising and new projects to enhance our impact!

MISSION STATEMENT:

The purpose of the Friends shall be to maintain an association of volunteers interested in supporting our local library by

1. Focusing public attention on the library;
2. Stimulating the use of the library's resources and services;
3. Promoting financial support through donations, endowments, and bequests to the library;
4. Supporting the library in developing services and special programs;
5. Generating legislative support when necessary to accomplish our purpose.
